WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Local planning commissioners, elected officials, zoning administrators, professional planners, realtors, developers, lawyers, and others interested in the legal liability of local units of government will all benefit from this workshop.

This workshop will familiarize elected and appointed officials with many of the legal liabilities associated with the decision-making process and how to best manage that liability. It will give an introduction to risk management concepts, including specific topics pertaining to the plan, the zoning ordinance, decision-making and the record.
