Southwest Michigan | 360 Group | 2010

After a one-year hiatus, Southwest Michigan's premier business and community leader coalition, the 360 Group, is poised to enter the new year equipped with the knowledge and tools to catapult the region to a new level of economic health. The Southwest Michigan Planning Commission will deliver a four-module program with assistance from state and national experts, supplementing a baseline perspective on regional assets with state-of-the-art best practices for regional excellence and prosperity. The curriculum, customized to meet the unique needs of Southwest Michigan, strives to build ownership, leadership, and engagement in Berrien, Cass and Van Buren Counties.
