

CASS SESC TRADE SHOW

Showcasing erosion control products & organizations assisting with site management

Event hosted by the Cass County Conservation District Soil Erosion & Sedimentation Control Program
RSVP to be entered in Door Prize raffle - text name and email to Korie at 269-845-8393

Thursday, February 27

10am-2:30pm

At Griner Farms, 13120 Born Street, Jones, MI 49031

Free & light lunch provided!

Please RSVP. Only RSVP 's will be entered in Door Prize raffle - Text your name and email to 269-845-8393

Visit trade show booths:

- Casey's Erosion & Seed Solutions
- Cass County Conservation District SESC permitting
- Cass County Conservation District Regenerative Agriculture
- Davey Resource Group, Inc.
- Dussel's Farm Market
- EGLE Water Resources Division
- interface2o, LLC
- North Star Landscape Design & Installation
- SW x SW Regional CISMA
- USDA Farm Service Agency
- and more - contact Korie at 269-845-8393 if you want a booth space for your organization

Presentations:

10:30am Chris Godlewski, Senior Urban Planner Abonmarche
> Developing collaboration of a project plan in partnership with Permitting Agencies, Designers & Excavators

11:30am Ann Gilchrist, Senior Environmental Quality Analyst, EGLE
> Slope stabilization best management practices

12:00pm Lunch break and visits to booth exhibit/activities
> sponsored by Henry Yandt Construction

1pm Alex Florian SWxSW Corner CISMA
> Invasive species & equipment decontamination

1:30pm Clay Kusbach | Associate Consultant, Davey Resource Group, Inc.
> Aerial Seeding & Using Drones as a Tool in the Ecological Restoration Process

Cass County Conservation District event with special thanks for support from our sponsors:

CASS COUNTY
CONSERVATION
DISTRICT