

Figure 1: The Pucker Street Dam was built on the high gradient section of the Dowagiac (highlighted) as it flows down into the St Joseph River valley - a unique habitat in southern MI.